A stylized graphic illustration of a city skyline. The skyline is composed of several black silhouettes of buildings with white window cutouts. Above the buildings, there are three overlapping grey circles. A yellow arrow points to the right, enclosed within a pink circle, positioned above the first grey circle. Another yellow arrow points to the left, enclosed within a pink circle, positioned above the third grey circle. To the left of the skyline is a black silhouette of a cloud with a white horizontal line. To the right is a black silhouette of a building with a white window cutout.
